LOCATION OVERVIEW

Church Street Marketplace is a vibrant and booming downtown mecca in the City of Burlington. With a surplus of existing retailers and restaurants and the planned mall redevelopment underway, it is quickly becoming a hub for tourists, students and locals alike. It is an exciting time to be close by to the Church Street Marketplace and become part of the heart of Burlington.

Corner of Main and St Paul Street Exposure —

This prime downtown location just a two-minute walk from Church Street Marketplace and at the intersection of Main and St. Paul Streets. The space benefits from strong pedestrian traffic and easy access to Burlington’s core retail, dining, and entertainment district. Surrounded by well-known destinations including Trattoria Delia, Soto, Pizzeria Veritas, Flynn Theatre, American Flatbread, and multiple hotels this highly walkable location offers exceptional exposure and convenience for both locals and visitors.

As a long established venue the new owner and concept will have no challenges filling the room with customers and guests.
